3. Plan Recommendations and Approvals. The Compensation Committee shall periodically review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive-compensation and equity-based plans that are subject to approval by the Board. In addition, the Compensation Committee shall approve any tax-qualified, non-discriminatory employee benefit plans (and any parallel nonqualified plans) for which stockholder approval is not sought and pursuant to which options or stock may be acquired by officers, directors, employees or consultants of the Company.
4. Administration of Equity-Based Plans. The Compensation Committee shall exercise all rights, authority and functions of the Board under all of the Company's stock option, stock incentive, employee stock purchase and other equity-based plans, including without limitation, the authority to interpret the terms thereof, to grant options thereunder and to make stock awards thereunder; provided, however, that, except as otherwise expressly authorized to do so by this charter, any such plan or a resolution of the Board, the Compensation Committee shall not be authorized to amend any such plan. To the extent permitted by applicable law and the provisions of a given equity-based plan, and consistent with the requirements of applicable law and such equity-based plan, the Compensation Committee may delegate to one or more executive officers of the Company the power to grant options or other stock awards pursuant to such equity-based plan to employees of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company who are not directors or executive officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee shall approve any inducement awards granted in reliance on the exemption from stockholder approval contained in NASDAQ Rule 5635(c)(4).

7. Review and Discussion of Compensation Discussion and Analysis; Recommendation to Board. The Compensation Committee shall review and discuss annually with management the Company's "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K (the "CD&A"). 8. Compensation Committee Report. The Compensation Committee shall review and approve the annual Compensation Committee Report required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K.
9. Consultants and Advisers. The Compensation Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any Compensation Adviser retained by the Compensation Committee. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Compensation Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Compensation Adviser engaged by the Compensation Committee.

The Compensation Committee may select, or receive advice from, a Compensation Adviser only after taking into consideration the following factors:

- (a) The provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the Compensation Adviser;
- (b) The amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the Compensation Adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the Compensation Adviser;
- (c) The policies and procedures of the person that employs the Compensation Adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;

- (d) Any business or personal relationship of the Compensation Adviser with a member of the Compensation Committee;
- (e) Any stock of the Company owned by the Compensation Adviser; and
- (f) Any business or personal relationship of the Compensation Adviser or the person employing the Compensation Adviser with any executive officer.

After considering the independence factors outlined above, the Compensation Committee may select, or receive advice from, any Compensation Advisers it prefers, including ones that are not independent.

The Compensation Committee is not required to conduct the independence assessment outlined above for in-house counsel or any Compensation Adviser whose role is limited to the following activities: (i) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees; and/or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the Compensation Adviser, and about which the Compensation Adviser does not provide advice.

If the Compensation Committee determines that the work performed by a Compensation Adviser retained by the Compensation Committee has raised any conflict of interest, the Compensation Committee shall disclose to the Board the nature of such conflict of interest and how it is being addressed. In determining whether a conflict of interest exists, the Compensation Committee shall consider the factors described above and the applicable laws and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

The Compensation Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Compensation Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it shall deem appropriate.
2. Subcommittees. The Compensation Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances (including (a) a subcommittee consisting of a single member and (b) a subcommittee consisting of at least two members, each of whom qualifies as a “non-employee director,” as such term is defined from time to time in Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, and an “outside director,” as such term is defined from time to time in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder).
